No. 110.

The 4th July 1874.

Under the authority conveyed in the despatch from the Foreign Office, noted in the margin, the following Rules for the establishment of Local Committees for the administration of Local Funds in Mysore, which have been sanctioned by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council, will come into operation in the Province on and from the 1st September next, and the requisite measures will be taken in the interim for the formation by that date of the Committee in each District.

2. With reference to the provisions in Section VI of the Rules for the assignment of a minimum proportion of the local fund cess for educational purposes, no charge will be at present made in the existing allotment for this purpose, viz. 24 per cent of the total realizations from the cess.

Rules for the Establishment of Local Committees for the Administration of Local Funds in Mysore.

I. A District Committee shall be formed in each District in Mysore, for the administration of the Local Funds levied within such District, and placed at the disposal of such committee, and shall consist of—

1. The Deputy Commissioner—President.
2. The Assistant Commissioner at District Head Quarters.

- 87
3. The Assistant Commissioners in charge of Sub-Divisions.¹
 4. The Executive Engineer.
 5. The Amildars of the Taluks comprised within the District.
The above are to be ex-officio members.
 6. An inamdar or holder of an alienated village in the District to be elected as provided for in Rule XIX by the holders of alienated villages in the District.
 7. Six proprietors or holders of land to be appointed by the Commissioner of the Division.

II. Any member of a District Committee may be removed by the Chief Commissioner.

III. Each District Committee shall sue and be sued in the name of the President by the description of the "President of the District Committee for the Local Funds of the District of."

Any deed, contract or instrument, so made on behalf of the said Committee, shall be executed by the President of the Committee.

IV. The local funds at the disposal of a District Committee shall include the proceeds of the one anna cess in settled, and the half anna cess in unsettled taluks on every rupee of land revenue, and such other funds as Government may be pleased to make over to such committee for the purposes of these rules.

V. The duties of a District Committee shall be to ascertain and, subject to the provisions of Rule VI following, to provide, so far as the means at its disposal will allow, for the requirements of the District with respect to works and undertakings calculated to promote the public health and convenience, such as hospitals, dispensaries, roads, Dharmasalas, markets and wells, and other works for improving the water supply.

VI. The funds at the disposal of a District Committee shall be spent exclusively in the taluk in which they are collected. One-fifth of the local fund cesses shall always be assigned to the Educational Department for expenditure in the taluk in which the same is levied, and the remainder shall be spent exclusively upon roads and communications and works subordinate thereto, i. e. Dharmasalas or rest houses, road-side water supply, and the plantation of road-side avenues of trees, and in aid of the establishment of charitable dispensaries. Provided however that an exception to this rule may be made in the case of communications connecting adjacent taluks, and that the proportion allotted to education may be altered at any time by the Chief Commissioner.

VII. A District Committee shall be subordinate to, and under the control of, the Commissioner of the Division, who may in the exercise of such control order any expenditure on special objects of the nature above described from funds that may not have been appropriated by the District Committee under Rule X, or from savings in the funds appropriated.

VIII. On or before the 1st September in each year, the Taluk Amildars shall prepare and submit to the District Committees to which they are respectively subordinate, a statement of projects (with estimates for the same) which may be proposed to be executed in the year commencing 1st April following.

IX. The Deputy Commissioner as President of the District Committee shall annually, on or before the 1st October, prepare a statement shewing the estimated revenue on account of local funds for the ensuing year commencing 1st April following, and this statement, together with the proposals and estimates required in the preceding rule, shall be laid before the District Committee at a meeting to be convened by the President on or about the 1st October of each year at a place named by him, 15 days notice of such intended meeting being given.

X. The District Committee shall decide at the meeting provided for in Rule IX, what local works and repairs, and what other works of general utility to the District, whether those proposed by the Taluk Amildars or others, shall be undertaken, and shall cause a general list to be prepared shewing the amount proposed to be expended on each work. The statement of estimated receipts, and the list of proposed works thus adopted by the District Committee, shall be forwarded through the Commissioner of the Division for approval and transmission for the sanction of the Chief Commissioner.

XI. The vote of the majority of the members present at a meeting of a District Committee shall decide all questions before such meeting. In the event of an equal division of votes, the President shall have a casting vote. The proceedings of every meeting shall be drawn up at the time and signed by the President, and a copy forwarded through the Commissioner of the Division, for the information of the Chief Commissioner. No business shall be transacted unless at least three members including the President are present. In the absence of the President, one of the members shall be elected President of the meeting by the members present.

XII. For the despatch of the current work of a general nature, and for the disposal of any other business which may be brought forward by the President or any other member, a District Committee shall hold meetings at least twice a year, besides those provided for in Rules VIII, IX, and XXI, on or about such dates as may be fixed by the Chief Commissioner.

The President of a District Committee is, however, competent to call a special meeting of the committee at any time by issuing a notice of not less than 15 days to the members to that effect.

XIII. The President of a District Committee may give out to be executed by contract, local fund works, whose estimated cost does not exceed Rs. 3,000 each. But for works exceeding that amount, the power of granting contracts therefor shall vest in the Commissioner of the Division.

XIV. A District Committee shall be competent to entertain what temporary establishments may seem to it necessary for the execution of local fund works sanctioned in the District. But it shall not be competent to create any permanent new appointments without the previous sanction of the Commissioner of the Division.

XV. No disbursements whatever shall be made from the local funds by way of remuneration to any persons employed in any Government establishment without the sanction of the Chief Commissioner previously obtained through the Commissioner of the Division. And no new appointments shall be created in any Government Office at the expense of local funds without similar sanction. The establishment of Overseers and other Officers in the Department of Public Works does not come within the scope of this Rule.

XVI. In Districts where a Local Fund Engineer has been or may hereafter be sanctioned, the appointment and dismissal of this officer will rest with the Commissioner of the Division, but subject to the confirmation in either case of the Chief Commissioner.

XVII. All appointments in the Correspondence, Account and Public Works Department under a District Committee shall be made by such committee, subject to the veto of the President of that committee. Where the President may record his veto, the case shall be submitted with reasons for the final decision of the Commissioner of the Division.

XVIII. No servant of a District Committee drawing more than Rs. 50 a month, shall be dismissed without the consent, in meeting assembled, of the majority of the District Committee. The President of a District Committee shall be competent to suspend any such servant for misconduct or negligence, pending the question of his dismissal being submitted (which shall be done with as little delay as possible) to the District Committee. The President of a District Committee shall, however, be competent to dismiss summarily any servant of the committee drawing 50 Rs. or less a month.

XIX. The election of inamdars as members for a District Committee shall be conducted as follows:—

The President of the District Committee shall forward a notice to every inamdar in the District (entered in the Government books as holder of an alienated village) or, in his absence, to his manager or agent, requiring the inamdar before a fixed date, which shall not be earlier than one month from the date of the notice, to elect an inamdar of the District as a member for the District Committee. The electors shall give the votes in writing to be delivered by post or otherwise to the President of the District Committee before the date fixed. The person who shall have received the largest number of votes shall (unless the Chief Commissioner sees sufficient reason for excluding him) be declared elected, and his name shall be forwarded by the President for insertion in the local Gazette. In the event of the inamdars not making a return by the time specified in the notice, the Deputy Commissioner shall appoint.

XX. A detailed report of the local funds administration in each taluk shall be annually submitted by the Amildar of such taluk to the President of the District Committee in or about the 1st week in April.

The report shall explain what was done during the year under review, or what may be required in future.

XXI. The President of the District Committee shall, after receiving the reports provided for in Rule XX preceding, compile a concise report of the general administration of the local funds of his District, and this report, after being discussed at a general meeting of the District Committee to be convened before the end of April in each year, shall be forwarded for submission to the Chief Commissioner through the Commissioner of the Division. This report shall include a statement of the year's receipts and disbursements.

XXII. The Chief Commissioner may frame such further Rules, not inconsistent with these Rules, for the guidance of District Committees, as he may from time to time deem necessary. Provided that nothing in the foregoing rules shall be held to modify or interfere with the existing control exercised by the Chief Commissioner over the local funds of the Province.
